

Society

- This is a society full of people—my 1-year-old, 5-year-old, 10-year-old, 15-year-old, 20-year-old, and 25-year-old selves—growing, studying, or working.
- I am male. There are many females who have hobbies like mine, know the same things I do, get similar scores, or work in the same industry as me.
- I am 30 years old. About half of the people around me are older than I am. Many of them know more than I do, earn more than I do, or have been to more places than I have.
- When I was as young as 10 years old or 20 years old, the way I looked at older people is similar to how I now look at younger people.
- Everyone lives their own life; some things we have in common, while other things are different.
- People speak different languages, live in different places, work on different things, and interact with different people.
